UNTITLED CAROL

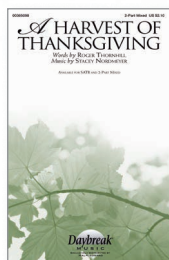

Joseph M. Martin

Uses: Lent, Christmas, Epiphany, Christmas Communion

Scriptures: Luke 2:19; John 19:25-27

From the enigmatic title to its final whispered cries, this anthem reminds us of the journey from manger to cross. Told within the context of a Marian lullaby, the story moves through three scenes in the life of Jesus. The ancient COVENTRY CAROL forms the musical foundations of this lament, moving with pristine beauty in uncluttered textures and rich harmonies. For moments of Christmas contemplation or even Lenten communion, this piece will leave a lasting impression on your people. An instant classic!

A HARVEST OF THANKSGIVING

Roger Thornhill/Stacey Nordmeyer

Daybreak Music

Uses: Thanksgiving

Scriptures: Psalm 107:8-9; Psalm 136:1; II Corinthians 9:11-12

Now available as a "one rehearsal wonder" in a 2-part mixed setting! The spirit of gratitude shines in this paean of praise. Approachable in scope and arranged for success, this is an ideal opener for a harvest service. The music lilts with a message proclaiming that we are abundantly blessed and a quote from the celebrated "We Gather Together" adds warmth and appeal to the concept. Creative modal alterations in the harmonic selection give this piece an ancient/modern feel that is welcome in many styles of worship.

LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING

James Weldon Johnson/J. Rosamond Johnson/
James C. Ward/arr. Heather Sorenson

Uses: Concert, Social Justice, Hymn, General

Scriptures: Exodus 4:10-17; II Chronicles 20:28; I Corinthians 12:12-14

This beloved hymn, often referred to as the "Black national anthem," was first performed in 1900. Widely considered to be a treasure, it is frequently chosen to celebrate important moments in gatherings and commemorations of the African American Civil Rights Movement. In this adaptation, Heather Sorenson and Rev. James Ward have collaborated in an effort that highlights the cooperation of Black and White composers working together to honor the message of social justice. A new second verse brings the hymn into our current quest for diversity and equality so that all choirs can have the opportunity to build unity from faith and music.

PONDER ANEW

Pamela Stewart/John Purifoy

Uses: Church Heritage, Reformation, General

Scriptures: Psalm 64:9; Psalm 111:4

Innovative harmonies and a well-known hymn tune are the hallmarks of this successful new anthem. The powerful lyric speaks to the divine calling of the church and the work that God has done, is doing, and will continue doing among His people. Variety sounds throughout the anthem with shimmering chords beckoning the listener to "ponder anew" before surrendering to the tune ST. DENIO, with admonitions to praise and share what "marvelous, infinite things God can do!" After an impressive climax, the piece winds down to a reflective ending, returning the piece to its thoughtful beginnings. Highly effective!

CHRISTMAS, SHARE YOUR SONG

Joseph M. Martin/Jonathan Martin/Brad Nix

Uses: Christmas

Scriptures: Luke 2:11; Matthew 1:22-23

A message of hope and joy nestles in the heart of this new seasonal anthem. The text is set to a lilting, almost madrigal-style tune in 6/8 that soon surrenders to the famed "Good Christians All, Rejoice." This makes for a winning combination of old and new, and the jubilant piano writing moves the piece along with delightful spirit.

A SONG IS SURELY RISING

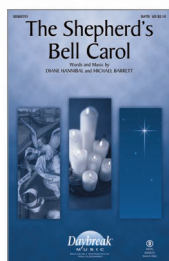

Jonathan Martin/Joseph M. Martin

Uses: Call to Worship, General

Scriptures: Psalm 108:2; Isaiah 49:13;
Romans 15:11

From the opening bell tones in the piano, this anthem awakens the worshipping church to praise. Incorporating the early-American hymn tune PISGAH, this original piece celebrates the sacred call of music in proclaiming the joy of the Lord. The folklike character in the substance of the music is displayed in the melodic contours and rustic harmonic vocabulary. This is the day for singing and for sending alleluias soaring!

Bright and lively, this original anthem has the feeling of a middle-European folk song. Incorporating NOEL NOUVELET, the piano and percussion bring the vibe, adorning the catchy minor melody with colorful timbres. In troubadour style, the text tells the story of faithful shepherds looking for their lost sheep. The second verse uses an ostinato to create a rustic folk band with vocal sounds instead of instruments. Unforgettable sonic joy!

STILL (A HYMN FOR PEACE)

Heather Sorenson

Uses: Peace Sunday, General

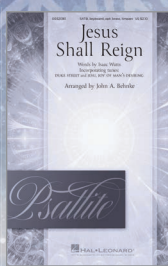

Scriptures: Exodus 14:14; Psalm 6:2-6; Psalm 102:1-2; Mark 4:39

Fragile and precious, this sacred tone poem is a prayer for peace and a plea for healing of the heart. The soundscape of the anthem rises from a single tone, opening to reveal glimmering splashes of choral color. As the words become more impassioned, the octavo surrenders to a flowing piano episode that matches its intensity. This petition for calm begins to quiet as the anthem winds down, allowing the prayer to end in hushed chords of assurance.

TALIA MIRACULA (SUCH WONDERS)

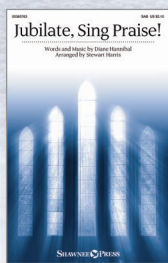

Pamela Stewart/Brad Nix

Uses: Christmas

Scriptures: II Corinthians 4:6; Luke 2:8-14; Psalm 119:130; I John 1:15

From our Psallite Series, we present a sacred tone poem destined to be an important addition to the choral canon. Luxurious in harmonic language, this octavo framed in Latin describes the angel’s announcement of Christ’s birth to the shepherds. Emerging poetically from stillness and darkness with fragile sound, the piece opens organically as the divine glory of light breaks forth with angelic “Glorias” in luminous chords. Divided voices and evocative watercolor-like dissonances create a substantial sonic stack, a challenge worth taking for choirs of distinction. The cyclical text returns to the opening darkness and silence before ending with peace. Magnificent!

EVERY NATION, EVERY TRIBE

(Kila Taifa, Kila Kabila)

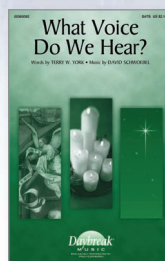

Karen Crane/arr. Stacey Nordmeyer

Uses: Missions, World Communion, Unity, General

Scriptures: I Corinthians 11:17-34; Acts 20:7

Filled with life and joy, this multicultural anthem mixes traditional choral textures with distinctive rhythms and repeated phrases in Swahili. This thrilling effect produces the perfect spirit for a song that speaks to God's universal love and grace. The appearance of "O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing" is a brilliant stroke, connecting a modern concept to a classic hymn text and tune.

(An Anthem of Hope for Advent and Lent)

Gene Ezell/Jerald Hill/Heather Sorenson

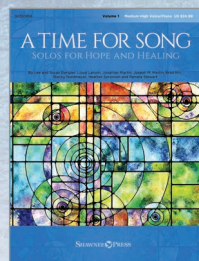

Uses: Lent, Advent

Scriptures: I Timothy 6:16; Genesis 1:3; Isaiah 69:19

Using the imagery of sacred light, this poetic telling of the redemption story is filled with expressive beauty. "A blanket of shadows, a veil of despair, the fate of the world hung in the air." These words describe a world without Christ. The fragile theme arches longingly to carry the text like a gentle prayer before luminous harmonies caress the words "let there be light."

Unison or budding 2-part choirs will find great success with this song of exaltation that invites everyone to "sing a new song to the Lord!" Echo singing and limited vocal harmony offer developing choirs a chance to experience the first steps toward part-singing. An optional drum part elevates the exuberant quality of this well-crafted piece.

O LORD, OUR GOD, WE THANK YOU

Jeff Reeves/Vicki Hancock
Wright

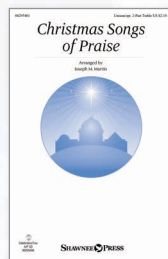

Uses: Thanksgiving,
General Worship

Scriptures:

Psalm 9:1; Psalm 107:8;
1 Chronicles 16:34

Filled with charm and wonder, this anthem of thanksgiving celebrates the bounty of God's goodness that surrounds us each day. A captivating piano accompaniment brings lush harmonic color and strong melodic support to the memorable melody while an optional handbell part adds an additional layer of sparkle to the piece.

CHRISTMAS SONGS OF PRAISE

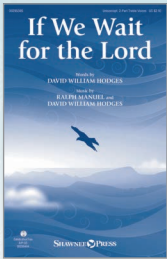

arr. Joseph M. Martin

Uses: Christmas

Scriptures: Luke 2:1-20

Perfect for any Christmas worship service, this medley of joyful carols heightens the spirit of praise and adoration for the newborn King. Suitable for choirs of all ages, the medley includes "O Come, All Ye Faithful," "Good Christian Friends, Rejoice," and a new text setting for the "Gentle Mary Laid Her Child" tune.

IF WE WAIT FOR THE LORD

David William Hodges/
Ralph Manuel

Uses: General Worship
Scriptures: Isaiah 40:31

Flowing and gentle, this inspirational Scripture anthem reminds us that when we place our trust in the Lord we will find strength and renewal. The anthem's rolling 3/4 meter and lovely piano accompaniment provide a strong singing foundation for choirs of all ages, especially older elementary choirs. A short quotation of the hymn, "I Love Thee," helps bring the piece to a touching conclusion.

LIGHT A LITTLE CANDLE

(New Edition)

Joseph M. Martin

Uses: Advent
Scriptures: Matthew 5:14-16; Luke 11:33

This new edition of one of Shawnee's best selling Advent anthems incorporates the wonderful spiritual, "This Little Light of Mine," encouraging young singers to share the light of love with everyone. Using familiar candle imagery, the piece fosters a solid understanding of Advent and the symbolism that surrounds this unique season of the year.

CLAP YOUR HANDS! (¡PUEBLOS TODOS, APLAUDAN!)

Jeff Reeves

Uses: General Worship
Scriptures: Psalm 47:1

Psalm 47:1 provides the inspiration for this jubilant anthem that calls one and all to offer praise and service to God. Opportunities for singing in Spanish, clapping hands, and playing shakers enhance the multicultural spirit of the piece. Both the melody and optional second voice part are easy to learn with repeated text, pitch, and rhythmic phrases. Older elementary choirs will especially enjoy this piece as a "start of the year" anthem.

SILENT NIGHT, HOLY NIGHT

arr. Audrey Snyder

Uses: Christmas
Scriptures: Luke 2:1-20

Brimming with presentation options, this arrangement of the cherished Christmas carol beautifully depicts the peaceful, folk-like quality for which it is known. Although a choir may sing the piece alone, the anthem also provides suggestions for other ensembles and congregation to participate as well. A lovely counter-melody joins the traditional melody in verses 3 and 4 making it a terrific anthem for combined choirs and/or congregation.

SING HOSANNA!

Jacob Tilton

Uses: Palm Sunday
Scriptures: Matthew 21:1-11; Luke 19:28-38

This dynamic Palm Sunday anthem resonates with energy as it calls everybody to "sing hosanna to the Lord." Optional claves and shakers along with a spirited piano accompaniment enhance the lively, rhythmic flavor of the piece especially appealing for older elementary choirs.

MAY THE WORDS OF MY MOUTH

Joseph M. Martin/
Brad Nix

Uses: Lent, General Worship

Scriptures: Psalm 19:14

Based on Psalm 19:14, this prayerful piece is an excellent selection for Lent or any general time of year. The aspiring text expresses a desire to honor God through actions, thoughts, and spoken words. Repetition in both the melody and optional vocal harmony makes the piece a superb choice for older elementary, youth, or adult choirs.

WELCOME EASTER MORNING

R.G. Huff/Donna Butler

Uses: Easter

Scriptures: Matthew 28:5-6; Luke 24:1-3

A spirited piece in 2/2 meter, this Easter anthem calls the "global congregation" to sing together the joyful alleluias of Christ's resurrection. A sparkling piano accompaniment highlights the charming melody that's easy to learn and fun to sing. A clever flute part at the end of the anthem weaves in short, familiar phrases of Christ the Lord Is Risen Today.
