FROM SILENCE TO SONG

A Chamber Cantata for Holy Week or Easter

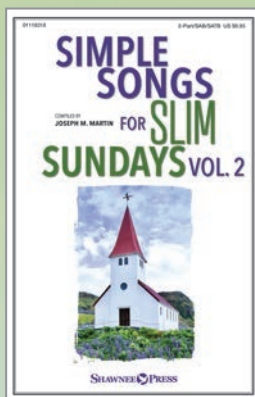

Joseph M. Martin

From ministry to humility and Calvary to victory, the story of Christ's redemptive grace is clearly presented in this meaningful offering. There is a pleasing blend of original material with familiar hymns, along with a scripture-based narration. This flexible chamber cantata includes two final songs: one for Holy Week, and the other for Easter. A smaller, yet effective orchestration provides instrumental or track options, while voice dominant tracks make learning convenient and approachable. A cantata of remembrance, reflection and resurrection!

Songs include: A Quiet Gathering; Somewhere in the Silence; Prepare Your Hearts; I Heard the Voice of Jesus Calling; Just Beyond the Palms; In the Stillness of This Moment; Silent Was the Night: The Lamb Is Silent Now; The Silence Speaks; Set Free Your Alleluia!

THINK ON THESE THINGS

Lee Dengler

Uses: General

Scriptures: Philippians 4:8-9

This anthem is a gentle admonition to linger only on the noble Christ-honoring things of life and to turn from what would limit our walk of faith. Creative use of linear writing creates a tapestry of sound that is engaging and appropriate to the spirit of the text.
